"I used Innoxa Baby's Massage Oil on Isabella and Annalise. It left their skin feeling soft and smelling beautiful!" Tanya, 33

"I find Reece's skin can get very dry, so I pop Johnson's Baby Oil in his bath to help keep his skin moisturised."

Sharon, 23

"I love Jurlique Baby's Soothing Bubble Bath. It's a beautiful, soothing liquid which has lavender essential oils to encourage a good night's sleep, which is what we all want!" Veronica, 30

"I use Desitin cream to treat Gemma and Sophie's nappy rash. It protects their skin from becoming sore."

Hui Lin Ho, 26

"I'm using Swisspers 1 wipes for everything, from wiping Daniel's bum to cleaning his fingers." Sonja, 22

"A friend gave me a range of Avène products when I had Aden, and I've been using the Pédicrill cream for face and body religiously!" Elizabeth, 21

"The best baby products are by Pigeon! I swear by almost all of their products, but I love the 2 in 1 wash. It's fantastic and doesn't dry Jet's skin." Nicole, 24

"Johnson's Baby Bedtime Bath is a favourite of mine. I find it really relaxes Levi and helps him to sleep. I love nothing more than to have a relaxing bedtime bath – and babies are no different." Kathy, 30

"The Avado Baby Naturals Shampoo leaves Jess's hair silk soft. It's great, as her hair is extremely fine and gets knotted easily." Clare, 34

"I try to use organic products on Samara's skin. We both love Babies Only Smooth as a Babys Balm, which clears up her nappy rash."

Rachael, 29
